The January Sale of

Undermuslins for Women and Children.

BEGINS THIS MORNING WITH COMPLETE ASSORTMENTS OF COMBINATION SUITS, GOWNS, DRAWERS, CHEMISES AND CORSET COVERS, AND ALSO CORSETS AND SILK PETTICOATS.

A thoroughly satisfactory assortment of the best Undermuslins, carefully selected from makers that could fulfill our demands of quality, style, workmanship, and general excellence. They meet in every detail the requirements of critical buyers—appealing alike to all women in their many pleasing features.

The nature of the present styles demands that the "fitting" qualities be exact; this need has been carefully met, and with such precision that we are confident there is none better. No stock of Undermuslins we have ever presented has been made with this important quality worked out to such perfection.

The Prices Are Much Less Than Regularly.

KNOXES GIVE A BREAKFAST TO DIPLOMATS AND OTHERS

Foreign and Government Set Guests at Function in Pan-American Building—How Cabinet Members Observed New Year's Day.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Knox left the receiving line about 12:45, after their breakfast to the diplomatic corps, the members of the Foreign Relations Committee of the House and Senate, and the higher officials of the State Department and their wives, began at 1 o'clock in the building of the Pan-American Union. The building was almost empty with guests. The Secretary and Mrs. Knox received alone at the head of the main staircase, the guests passing them and going into the huge apartment behind them or on down the stairs again and to the dining-room, where the buffet breakfast was served. The Elmhurst Band played and the guests danced merrily for several hours. This ended Mrs. Knox's receiving for the day, but the reception of the Cabinet circle held receptions in their own homes during the afternoon hours, except those who were absent from the line at the White House.

The splendid home of the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. MacVeagh was the scene of a very large reception from 2 o'clock on. Mrs. MacVeagh stood in her beautiful white and gold drawing room with its gold walls and onyx mantle. She was assisted by Lady Emily Lawrence, her house guest; Mrs. Hilary, Mrs. Norman, Mrs. W. H. Wood, Mrs. Francis W. Taylor, Mrs. Merrill McCormick, Mrs. Preston Gibson, Miss Scholm, Mrs. Southland, Mrs. Mary Southland, Mrs. Wadsworth, Mrs. Georgianna Hopkins, Mrs. Draper, Miss Honor Lawrence, Miss Carver, of Chicago, a house guest, and Miss Huggins. Tea and punch and ice were served at the head of the main staircase in the great dining hall of the MacVeagh home.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Fisher had a pleasant reception of visitors during the afternoon in their home in Connecticut avenue, which was the home of Secretary and Mrs. Dickinson last year, when the former was Secretary of War. Mrs. Fisher was assisted by Miss Katherine Britton, Miss Ruth Noyes, and several other young girls.

Mrs. Meyer and her daughters received a large number of visitors, principally the naval officers, there being no reception in the home of Admiral Dewey, the Meyer home being the rendezvous for the navy. Mrs. Meyer was assisted by a large company of naval hostesses, including Mrs. E. H. M. Winthrop, wife of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy; Mrs. Holliday, Mrs. Peckham, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. Vreeland, Mrs. Cowie, Mrs. Schroeder, Mrs. Twining, Mrs. Bidder, Mrs. Heatt, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Madger, Mrs. Potts, Mrs. Gibbons, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Bellman, Mrs. Livingston Hunt, Mrs. Kaiser, Mrs. W. E. Turpin, Mrs. Margaret Smith, Mrs. Row Brindford, and the Misses Meyer, and their house guest, Miss Frances Belmont.

Mrs. Nagel, wife of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, was a house guest, assisted by Mrs. Coble, wife of the Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Labor; Mrs. Herbert Knox Smith, wife of the Chief of the Bureau of Corporations; Mrs. Gordon Cummings, Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mrs. Thomas T. Gaff, Mrs. Corcoran Thom, Miss Sophy Johnson, Miss Mary Winslow, and Miss Nagel, and Miss Squire.

The home of the Speaker of the House of Representatives is always one of the most important of the "open houses," but the absence of Speaker Clark in the West caused Mrs. Clark to receive with the ladies of the Congressional Club, at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Robert Shaw Oliver, wife of the Assistant Secretary of War, was the ranking hostess yesterday for the army. She had assisted her husband, Leonard Wood, wife of the Chief of Staff, U. S. A.; Mrs. Garrison, wife of Gen. E. A. Garrison; Mrs. Wetherpoon, wife of Gen. W. W. Wetherpoon; Miss Oliver, and a number of the young women of army circles.

WANTS LONGER SCHOOL TERM.

Bureau of Education Issues Bulletin Showing Its Advantages.

If a bulletin just issued by the Bureau of Education has the desired effect on legislators, the school terms throughout the country will be lengthened. The bulletin, summarizing educational advances during the past year, lays stress on the fact that California and Michigan have enacted laws reducing the number of holidays to Saturdays, Sundays, New Year's, Decoration Day, and Thanksgiving Day, with the regular summer vacation.

The bulletin states that years ago in Buffalo the public schools kept in session during the entire year. Brooklyn, Baltimore, and Cincinnati formerly had sessions for eleven months of the year. New York City once had forty-eight weeks, Chicago had forty-eight weeks, and Detroit had 50 days.

HAITI'S FOURTH OF JULY.

Latin-American Legation Observes Country's Independence Day.

The national flag of Haiti was proudly flying in the breeze yesterday over the legation of that country, at 163 Rhode Island avenue, and the Pan-American Union, in honor of Haiti's independence day. M. Bolen de la, the Minister of Haiti, gave a reception in honor of the event, and entertained members of his staff at dinner.

January 1, 1804, the patriotic efforts of the French and Spanish struggled for supremacy on the island, while within the island itself forces were at work attempting to overthrow the yoke of European domination.

MONUMENT SOCIETY MEETS.

Governors to Call Attention to Absence of Tablets.

The Washington National Monument Society met yesterday afternoon at the residence of Theodore W. Noyes, 1738 New Hampshire avenue. The secretary, Fred L. Harvey, reported that the governors of States not represented by tablets in the Washington Monument will call the attention of the legislature to the matter.

The States without tablet representation are Colorado, Idaho, Washington, Oklahoma, Arizona, New Mexico, and Texas. It was deemed expedient to suggest to the various governors to present their memorials at about the same time, in order that the occasion might be marked with special ceremonies. Harveys expressed that the tablets might be ready for placement by Washington's birthday next year.

The next meeting of the society will be held February 12, when the annual election of officers will be held. Justice Brown presided at the meeting yesterday, at which were present members of the Supreme Court, of the Senate, and of the House, officers of the army and navy, other prominent government officials, and private citizens. A reception by Mr. Noyes in honor of the members of the society concluded the meeting.

SAENGERS INITIATE 1912.

Joy and Merriment Reigns at New Year's Entertainment.

Joy and merriment being the principal factors of the Saengerbund, its many members and friends initiated the clubhouse last night, the chorus contributing songs to the programme of entertainments.

A special dance card, including dances of all nations, participated in by members active in the national costumes of the countries represented, was the feature of the evening.

The committee in charge consisted of Herbert Levy, chairman; B. Bonnum, C. M. Carter, M. E. Ford, Dr. H. S. Gumbel, Dr. Thomas P. Kennedy, L. Krahling, G. Pauls, Dr. M. P. Smith, L. C. Streibberger, H. Sunwood, and Dr. L. A. Walker.

CHURCHES MAY UNITE.

Fifth Avenue and Calvary Baptist Looking for Consolidation.

New York, Jan. 1.—Responding to the modern impulse for combination and the gradual depopulation of areas of Manhattan, the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, popularly known as "Rockefeller's church," and Calvary Baptist Church have appointed committees to formulate terms for consolidation.

Both churches are without a pastor since Rev. Dr. Aker resigned from the Fifth Avenue church, and Rev. Dr. Robert Stuart MacArthur retired from the Calvary Church. One minister would direct the consolidated parishes.

Underwood Takes Auto Spin.

Representative Oscar W. Underwood, the Democratic House leader, who has been ill for the last few days, is rapidly recovering. Mr. Underwood spent the afternoon motoring with Mrs. Underwood through the parks. The majority leader expects to resume his work at the Capitol later in the week.

House Install Officers To-night.

Columbia Lodge, No. 126, Loyal Order of Moose of the World, will install its officers this evening at Typographical Temple. After the ceremony an entertainment and smoker will be given.

Outlook for Year Is Bright.

Bradford, Pa., Jan. 1.—Industrial activity in the Monongahela Valley offers a bright outlook for the coming year. Old mills are resuming steadily, while new ones are completed, though largest improvements planned being by the Pittsburg Steel Company of Monaca, an important corporation which will require output of almost $5,000,000.

New Turkish Ministry Formed.

Constantinople, Jan. 1.—It was officially announced this evening that a new Turkish cabinet had been formed to succeed the late Talaat cabinet, which resigned Saturday. Cheker, Pasha, minister of war in the old cabinet, and the old minister of the navy are retained in the new government.

An oil-engine-driven electric generating plant will be used to illuminate a lightship that is being built for the harbor of Hamburg.

Society

The Yale Alumni, of Washington, entertained at a brilliant ball last evening, following the concert of the Glee and Banjo and Mandolin clubs, nearly all the guests attending the concert and going from the concert room into the large ballroom for the dancing. Supper was served at one end of the ballroom at midnight. The reception committee of ladies consisted of Mrs. Charles C. Glover, Mrs. de Sibus, Mrs. G. Gould Lincoln, Mrs. George X. McLanahan, Mrs. Frank R. Noyes, and Mrs. J. Upshur Moorehead. The men's reception committee consisted of Mr. F. H. Brooks, Mr. J. Henri de Sibus, Mr. W. F. R. Hill, Mr. G.
